

GREATER SOUTHEAST ITV CONSORTIUM
Interactive Television Classes
Student Policy

Interactive Television Technology provides students with educational opportunities that are special both in content and in the way that they are made available. Participation should be considered an exciting opportunity as well as a privilege that carries with it a high level of responsibility.

Because of the manner in which ITV classes are delivered, certain standards of student behavior are expected of all students enrolling in these courses. This policy is intended to make participating students and their parents or guardian aware of the standards expected.

Students enrolled in ITV courses are aware of/agree to the following standards of behavior.

1. As a student, insubordination of any kind will not be tolerated. Insubordination is defined as actions or words that the instructor does not approve of that interfere with the teaching and learning process in the ITV classroom.
  2. Inappropriate language or obscene gestures will not be tolerated.
  3. Due to available technology, anything I do in the classroom may be videotaped.
  4. Classroom guidelines and procedures must be followed.
- Students must sit in camera view at all times.
  - Students must not misuse or abuse classroom equipment.
  - Students must follow the classroom rules outlined by their ITV instructor.

The following basic rules of discipline procedure will be followed for students who choose not to follow the above listed rules.

First Offense: The student will be given a verbal warning by the classroom instructor and told that their parents or guardian will be notified as to the infraction. The notification will be in writing to the parent/guardian, coordinator, and home school.

Second Offense: The student will be removed from the class and given a failing grade.

SEVERE MISCONDUCT: The student will be removed from the class immediately.

I have read and understand the policies listed above and agree to everything stated.
